

The History of UnityPoint Health

1993

Iowa Methodist Medical Center, Blank Children's Hospital and Iowa Lutheran Hospital merge to create Iowa Health System, which would eventually become Iowa Health – Des Moines

Iowa Health Physicians becomes a part of Iowa Health System

1995

Iowa Health System grows outside of Central Iowa with the addition of St. Luke's Methodist Hospital in Cedar Rapids and Allen Memorial Hospital in Waterloo

1996

St. Luke's Region Medical Center in Sioux City joins Iowa Health System

1999

Trinity Regional Medical Center in Fort Dodge, and Trinity Regional Health System in the Quad Cities join Iowa Health System

Jones Regional Medical Center in Anamosa becomes a subsidiary of St. Luke's Hospital in Cedar Rapids

1998

InTrust, which would become Iowa Health Home Care, was formed

1997

The Finley Hospital in Dubuque joins Iowa Health System

2004

Trinity Bettendorf opens in the Quad Cities as part of Trinity Regional Health System

2009

Unity Health Care, which would later become Trinity Muscatine, affiliates with Trinity Regional Health System

Iowa Health System launches HealthNet Connect, a 3,200-mile fiber optic network from Denver to Chicago, and e-Prescribe Iowa, the nation's first statewide electronic prescribing program

2010

Iowa Health System is rated one of the best-performing health care systems in the U.S.

2011

Methodist Medical Center of Illinois joins Iowa Health System

The Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services select Trinity Regional Medical Center and Trimark Physicians as one of the nation's original Pioneer Accountable Care Organizations

2012

Iowa Health Physicians and Clinics reorganizes, becomes the ninth senior affiliate of Iowa Health System

Quincy Medical Group of Illinois joins Iowa Health System

2013

Iowa Health System becomes

UnityPoint Health