Introduction

Iowa Code Section 261E.2 and Section 487(a)(25)(A) of the Higher Education Act (HEA) requires Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology to develop, administer, and enforce a code of conduct governing educational loan activities. Educational loan activities are those associated with any loan made, insured, or guaranteed under the Federal Family Education Loan Program (FFELP), the Federal Direct Loan Program (FDLP), or any private educational loan. Loans issued to student or parent borrowers under the FFELP or FDLP are the federal Stafford, parent PLUS, Grad PLUS, and Consolidation loans. Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology only participates in the William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan Program (FDLP) and Pell Grants. The school does not participate in the FFELP.

A private educational loan is any loan that is not made, insured, or guaranteed under Title IV of the Higher Education Act and is issued to a borrower expressly for postsecondary educational expenses, regardless of whether the loan is provided through the institution that the student attends or directly to the borrower from the lender. Private educational loans secured by a dwelling (e.g., a residential mortgage or reverse mortgage transaction), real property, or under an extension of credit under an open-end consumer credit plan (e.g., a home equity line of credit, or open line of credit tied to a Certificate of Deposit) are exempted from the definition of private educational loan.

All of the following individuals or entities associated with Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology must comply with this code of conduct governing educational loan activities:

- An employee
- A contract employee
- A director or officer
- A trustee
- An agent – including an alumni association, booster club, or other organization directly or indirectly associated with or authorized or employed by Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology.

Iowa Code Sections 261E.2(1) and 261E.1(2) and (3); HEA Sections 487(a)(25)(A) and 151 Definitions (1)

An organization that is affiliated with Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology must comply with certain aspects of the code of conduct, as identified below, if the organization is engaged in the practice of recommending, promoting, or endorsing education loans for families and students who attend Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology. An organization is affiliated with Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology if it is directly or indirectly related to Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology and includes, but is not limited to, alumni organizations, foundations, athletic organizations, social, academic, and professional organizations, and others that provide financial and vocational services to Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology’s students, employees or alumni. An organization does not need to be dependent on Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology to be affiliated. An educational loan lender is not an affiliated organization.

HEA Section 151 Definitions (5); 34 CFR 682.200(b)(5)(iii); November 1, 2007, Federal Register, Vol. 72, No. 211, p. 61979

This code of conduct must be published prominently on Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology’s internet site. At least annually, Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology’s officers, employees, and agents must be informed of the provisions of this code of conduct.
Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology’s code of conduct also addresses changes brought about by the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008 (P.L. 110-315) and inducement regulations promulgated by the U.S. Department of Education (USDE) in 34 CFR 682.200(b)(5) and 34 CFR 682.401(e). These federal laws and regulations set forth standards for relationships between colleges and universities, their affiliated organizations, FFELP and private lenders, and FFELP guarantors.

Gifts

Impermissible Activities

An officer, employee, or agent of Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology who is employed in the financial aid office or who otherwise has direct responsibilities with respect to federal and private educational loans must not solicit or accept any gift from a private or FFELP educational loan lender, lender servicer, or guarantor. See exceptions below under “Permissible Activities.”

Gifts to Family Members or Others

A gift to a family member of Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology’s officer, employee, or agent, or a gift to an individual based on that individual’s relationship with an officer, employee, or agent of Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology is not permissible if either of the following applies:

- The gift is given with the knowledge and acquiescence of the institution’s officer, employee, or agent,
- The officer, employee, or agent has reason to believe the gift was given because of that person’s official position with the institution.

Gift Definition

A gift means any gratuity, favor, discount, entertainment (including expenses for shows, sporting events, or alcoholic beverages), hospitality (including private parties of select training or conference attendees), loan, or other item having a monetary value of more than a nominal amount. A gift includes services, transportation, lodging, or meals, whether provided in kind, by purchase of a ticket, payment in advance, or reimbursement after the expense has been incurred.

Permissible Activities

Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology, a Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology employee, or a member of an organization affiliated with Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology may accept items of a nominal value from a private or FFELP educational loan lender, lender servicer, or guarantor that are offered as a form of generalized marketing or advertising or to create good will.

1A “nominal” amount is undefined in Iowa Code, federal law or the USDE’s inducement regulations. Employees of state agencies should consult their personnel policies for additional restrictions on the acceptance of gifts.
Examples of permissible gifts include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Pens or pencils
- Notepads
- Sticky-notes
- Rulers
- Calculators
- Small tote bags
- Other individual office supply items

An employee of Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology may also accept items of value from a lender, lender servicer, or guarantor that are also offered to the general public.

_Iowa Code Section 261E.1(5)(l) and (m); HEA Section 487(e)(2)(B); 34 CFR 682.200(b)(5)(ii)(J); 34 CFR 682.401(e)(2)(ix)_

Philanthropic Gifts/Contributions to the Institution

Impermissible Activities

Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology must not accept philanthropic contributions from a lender, lender servicer, or guarantor that are related to the educational loans provided by the lender, lender servicer, or guarantor to Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology, or that are made in exchange for any advantage related to educational loans. In addition:

- Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology or its affiliated organization(s) must not accept scholarships or grants from a FFELP lender or guarantor in exchange for FFELP loan applications or application referrals, a specified volume or dollar amount of FFELP loans made or guaranteed, or placement of a lender on the institution’s FFELP preferred lender list (PLL).

- Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology or its affiliated organization(s) must not accept financial aid funds under any Title IV, State, or private program from a guarantor based on an agreement to use the guarantee agency for processing loans, or to provide a specified volume of loans using the agency’s guarantee.

_Iowa Code Section 261E.1(5)(d); HEA Section 487(e)(2)(B)(ii)(V); 34 CFR 682.200(b)(5)(i)(A)(9); 34 CFR 682.401(e)(1)(i)(E)_

Permissible Activities

Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology may accept philanthropic contributions from a lender, lender servicer, or a guarantor that are not related to the educational loans provided by the lender or guarantor, and that are not made in exchange for any advantage to the lender, guarantor, or servicer. However, Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology must report philanthropic contributions made by a lender with whom we have a preferred lender arrangement* to the Iowa Attorney General. (The process for this disclosure will be developed by the Iowa Attorney General in administrative rules.)

*See “Preferred Lender Arrangements” for more information.

A Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology officer, employee, or agent who is employed in the financial aid office or who otherwise has direct responsibilities with respect to educational loans must not serve on or otherwise participate in an advisory council established by a lender, a group of lenders, or a lender’s affiliate.

An officer, employee, or agent of Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology who is not employed in the financial aid office but who has responsibility with respect to educational loans must not serve on or otherwise participate in a lender’s, lender servicer’s, or guarantor’s board of directors, unless Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology has a written conflict of interest policy.
Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology has a written conflict of interest policy for this purpose. See below under “Permissible Activities” for more information about the content of that policy.

Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology has a conflict of interest policy for this purpose. See below under “Permissible Activities” for more information about the content of that policy.

Iowa Code Sections 261E.3(7)(a)(3) and 261E.2(3); HEA Section 487(e)(3)(B)(iii)

Permissible Activities

An officer, employee, or agent of Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology who is not employed in the financial aid office and who has no responsibility with respect to educational loans may serve unrestricted and with compensation on the board of directors of a lender, lender servicer, or guarantor.

An officer, employee, or agent of Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology who is not employed in the financial aid office but who has responsibility with respect to educational loans may serve with compensation on the board of directors of a lender, lender servicer, or guarantor, if Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology has a written conflict of interest policy. Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology’s conflict of interest policy specifies that a Mercy/St. Luke's School of Radiologic Technology officer or agent who is serving on such a board of directors must not participate in any decision of the board with respect to any transaction regarding educational loans.

Iowa Code Sections 261E.2(3), 261E.3(6), 261E.3(7)(a)(1), 261.3(7)(a)(2); HEA Section 487(e)(3)(B)(i) and (ii)

Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology’s conflict of interest policy must include all of the following:

- A prohibition against the participation of such a member in any decision regarding Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology’s educational loans,
- Procedures to be followed when such a member’s personal or business interests in educational loans may be advanced by an action of the board of directors or trustees, and
- A prohibition against the participation of such a member in any decision to approve any transaction where such conflicting interests may be advanced.

Iowa Code Sections 261E.3(7)(a)(3), and 261E.2(3); HEA Section 487(e)(3)(B)(iii)

Iowa Code Section 261E.5(2)

Permissible Activities

Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology may bundle (i.e., package) private educational loans in a student’s financial aid award under any one of the following conditions:

- The borrower has not filled out a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)
- The borrower does not desire, or refuses to apply for, a Title IV loan (including a parent PLUS loan)

Iowa Code Section 261E.5(2); HEA Section 152(a)(1)(B)(iii)

Choice of Lender

Impermissible Activities

Since Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology does not maintain a PLL, the financial aid office will not use a (private and/or FFELP) preferred lender list (PLL) to:

- Require a prospective borrower to use a lender on our PLL
- Deny or otherwise impede a borrower’s choice of lender
- Assign a first-time borrower’s loan to a particular lender through award packaging or other methods
- Cause unnecessary certification delays for borrowers who use a lender that is not listed on our PLL

Iowa Code Sections 261E.6(1)(a) and 261E.6(2)(c), (d), and (e); HEA Section 487(e)(4); 34 CFR 682.212(h)(1)(i); 34 CFR 682.212(h)(2)(iii), (iv), and (v)

HEA Section 432(m)(1)(B); HEA Section 487(e)(4); 34 CFR 682.603(f)(1) and (2)

However, if a lender is a FFELP lender, additional restrictions apply, as noted in the following paragraph.

Iowa Code Section 261E.3(3)

Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology may enter into a contractual arrangement with a FFELP lender to provide services only if those services are unrelated to any type of student aid, and are not undertaken to secure FFELP loan applications or limit a borrower’s choice of FFELP lender. addressed here._

Permissible Activities

_Iowa Code Section 261E.1(5)(c); HEA Section 487(e)(2)(B)(ii)(III)discuss requirements relevant to

Meals, Refreshments, and Receptions

Impermissible Activities

See the definition of “Gift” for information about cases when meals, refreshments, or other hospitality is considered a prohibited gift.

Permissible Activities

Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology’s employees, affiliated organizations, and agents may accept from any lender or guarantor food and refreshments that are reasonable in cost and are offered as an integral part of a training session or conference that is designed to contribute to the professional development of Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology’s employees or agents. The food and refreshment sponsored by the lender or guarantor must be offered to all who attend the training session or conference.

Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology’s employees may attend a lender- or guarantor-sponsored reception for which food and refreshments are provided, so long as the reception is a general gathering that is held in conjunction with a training session or conference and is open to all attendees. These events provide attendees with the opportunity for information-sharing on the training being conducted. In addition, Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology may accept from a guarantor food and refreshments that are reasonable in cost and provided in connection with other workshops and forums the agency uses to fulfill its guaranty agency responsibilities.
Mercy/St. Luke’s School of Radiologic Technology’s employees who participate in the planning of a student-aid related training session or conference will ensure that food and refreshments sponsored by a lender or guarantor is reasonable in cost by applying the “prudent person test.” In other words, the cost per person for the sponsored event must not exceed the cost that would be incurred by the prudent person under the circumstances at the time the decision was made to incur the cost. The burden of proof will be, in part, on conference managers to show that costs are consistent with the normal per-person cost of the event.

November 1, 2007, Federal Register, Vol. 72, No. 211, p. 61981
